Description

A spacious and well-proportioned four-bedroom home offering versatile accommodation arranged over two floors.

The ground floor comprises a generous living room, a large kitchen/diner with ample space for dining and direct access to the outside, two bedrooms, a family bathroom and useful storage.

To the first floor are two further well-sized bedrooms and an additional bathroom.

The property enjoys a large secluded plot with substantial frontage providing parking for at least ten cars and further extension potential. The rear garden is tastefully landscaped with patio and lawn areas.

Situation

Church Road is a well-regarded residential road in Uxbridge, known for its attractive homes and convenient location. The property is ideally positioned within easy reach of Uxbridge town centre, which offers an excellent selection of shops, restaurants, bars and leisure facilities, as well as the Metropolitan and Piccadilly Line station, providing direct links into Central London. Brunel University, Hillingdon Hospital and Stockley Park are also within easy reach. For motorists, the A40, M40 and M25 are readily accessible, providing convenient connections to London and surrounding areas.
