Guide price £220,000

Cornwall | Devon | Somerset | Dorset | London

SITUATION

The property is situated in the heart of the popular conservation village of Sampford Courtenay. The village offers a range of local facilities, which include a thatched 17th Century Inn and church. From the village there is easy access to the larger town of Okehampton, some 6 miles distant, with its range of shops services, educational, recreational and leisure facilities. From Okehampton there is access via the A30 dual carriageway to the cathedral and university City of Exeter, a further 23 miles away, with its M5 motorway, mainline rail and international air connections. The Dartmoor National Park is easily accessible with its hundreds of square miles of superb unspoilt scenery, whilst there is also easy access to the north and south coasts of Devon, with some attractive beaches and delightful coastal scenery.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises the former Methodist Chapel, which has Planning Consent, Number 2373/17/FUL for change of use to form two dwellings. The current building is configured into the main church room, with a full height vaulted ceiling and a school room incorporating an open hall with adjoining kitchen and WC. Adjoining is a garage building with a mezzanine level. The plans allow for the imaginative conversion of the building into two superb residential units.
