

68 Queensmead, Bredon
TEWKESBURY, Gloucestershire

£275,000

Everything has been done on this three bedroom mid terrace, all that is required is for you to move straight in....

Bredon village is steeped in history dating back as far as the Bronze Age and inter woven with a fascinating rich tapestry including the Iron Age, The Romans as well as the Normans, with St Giles Church being a Norman Church. The village now is well known as the Start of the Cotswolds, while sitting on the Banks of the River Avon and just north of the market town of Tewkesbury, Bredon has a very strong based community that revolves around the schools , the local pubs as well as the local sports clubs.

Set within the ever so popular village of Bredon is this three bedroom mid terrace. As you enter the property you instantly feel right at home. A wonderfully light and bright home full of warmth and ready for any family to start making memories.

A practical family home from the moment you step into the porch. Once in the hall way, shoes and coats straight into the under-stairs cupboard. After making that cuppa, head into the lounge/diner and put your feet up to unwind after a long day. Alternatively open the French doors onto the patio and enjoy a nice cool G&T.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms and a nice sized third bedroom, perfect as a home office or nursery. The family bathroom has undergone a total makeover. Additional benefits include a downstairs shower room, off road parking to the front, a detached garage to the rear and a 70ft garden. The property is also on the market with no onward chain.
