Llwynarthen House, Newport Road, Castleton, Cardiff CF3 2UN.

A distinctive detached four bedroom country home, set within an acre of gardens and grounds, approached by a private gated entrance drive, and providing 2500 square feet of living space. This unique character residence, was built in 1938 with many features reputed to be reclaimed from Ruperra Castle, constructed with elevations in whitened render, inset with dark wood timber panels, all beneath a pitched thatched roof. This magnificent family home benefits a mock gothic style with solid oak timbers, door architraves, exposed beamed ceilings, and imposing solid oak panel internal doors with cast iron door knockers, handles and hinges. This impressive period home provides considerable character with generous well-proportioned rooms, many inset with elegant fireplaces including an Inglenook style fireplace positioned within the large principle lounge (20'1 x 12'8). The versatile and well-designed living space also includes a stunning entrance reception hall (15'0 x 9'3) inset with a wide returning spindle balustrade staircase, a down stairs cloak room with a stylish new white suite, a large open plan newly fitted kitchen and breakfast room (22'9 x 12'9max) open plan into a double glazed conservatory with French doors which open onto the private rear gardens. There is also a large dining room (17'5 x 12'4) inset with a pretty splayed bay, a stunning character fireplace and elegant original wood panelling. A truly elegant formal dining room with access from the hall and lounge. A further feature is an outer conservatory study which is approached from the lounge and opens onto the charming rear gardens, and an L shaped double glazed sun lounge conservatory (20'0 x 19'0). The first floor comprises four bedrooms, and two new bathrooms, both added in 2016, the master ensuite equipped with a double size Jacuzzi Bath, whilst the stylish family bathroom includes both a full panel bath, a separate contemporary shower, a wall mounted W.C. with concealed cistern and Geberit fittings, and a contemporary shaped wall mounted wash hand basin with a high gloss vanity unit.

Recent improvements include a re-wire in 2016, a new kitchen in 2016, new gas heating with a modern Worcester gas boiler (2016), working fireplaces, and UNDER FLOOR HEATING within the hall, cloak room and the kitchen breakfast room. Within the kitchen is a 2016 gas fired Aga range cooker, power showers within the bathrooms, and the property benefits mains gas, electricity and water, and private drainage. Outside there is a private flagstone entrance drive approached via a five bar gate, and leading to a double length garage (35'0 x 13'2 max). Outside the surrounding gardens and grounds include a private sun terrace with decked patios and a summer house, a large private main lawn with a flag stone sun terrace, an orchard, a hen run, a former goat paddock, and various log stores with mini stables. A rare opportunity to acquire a detached country home, set back with very private one acre gardens and grounds, located off a county lane approached from Newport Road A 48 Castleton.

Location

Castleton is located in the Marshfield ward, an affluent region to the outskirts of Cardiff, ideally placed for access to the A 48 allowing fast and economic travel to eastern Avenue, the M4, Cardiff and Newport.
