

Coppice Side, Swadlincote

Property Description

Currently a large four bedroom, three reception room detached property situated in a huge plot with large garage and workshop. The property is located a stone's throw from Swadlincote town centre and has the potential for development with reserved matters approved for 20 dwellings. This property could be purchased by someone looking to develop the whole site or to live in the existing property and take advantage of the huge plot on offer.

Original planning was granted in February 2007 with approval of reserved matters granted.

South Derbyshire District Council confirmed in February 2018 that conditions have been discharged and the construction of the visibility splay deemed that site works have commenced.

Conditions relating to contamination and noise levels were discharged in 2011 and reports have been completed by Ecologica and are available for inspection.
