This property has a large entrance porch into the hallway which leads to a front reception room. The large open plan kitchen/dining room enjoys incredible amounts of natural light given the large picture windows and doors leading to the rear garden. The property has four generous double bedrooms served by two bathrooms. The top floor is set up as a master suite with a double bedroom and adjacent luxurious shower room.

Allnutt Way is just off Crescent Lane which bisects Abbeville Road and therefore is super convenient for the boutique independent shops, coffee shops and bars/restaurants of Abbeville Village. It also affords easy access to Clapham Common itself and the Northern Line underground station which is also close by.
