The property has been tastefully upgraded and decorated in a classic style, creating an immaculate family home set within beautifully maintained gardens that offer both privacy and convenience. Located in a prominent position close to the River Tweed and the English Border, the property provides easy access to nearby towns and amenities, making it an ideal sanctuary for a variety of discerning buyers.

Elegant Period Features with Modern Comforts

Mansefield seamlessly blends the convenience of modern living with timeless classical features. The home is adorned with ornate cornicing, original shutters, doors, and fireplaces that add to its unique charm. Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming vestibule that leads into a grand entrance hall with polished wooden floors. To the left, a comfortable sitting room invites relaxation, while a bright and spacious drawing room on the opposite side overlooks the front garden. Additionally, this level includes a versatile dining room/snug.

At the heart of the home lies the stunning dining kitchen, featuring a stylish range of wall and floor units, a double oven range cooker, a Belfast sink, a fridge freezer, and a kitchen island. A fitted dresser unit with a TV and a walk-in pantry enhance the kitchen's functionality. Beyond the kitchen, you will find a utility room, a second walk-in pantry, and a shower room with a WC, ensuring practicality and ease.

Spacious and Versatile Accommodation

A fine staircase leads to a split-level landing, where steps to the right reveal a double bedroom complete with a walk-in wardrobe and an en-suite bathroom. The principal bedroom, overlooking the front of the property, offers the luxury of an en-suite bathroom and a dressing room. Two further generously proportioned double bedrooms—one with an en-suite shower room—ensure ample space for family or guests. The family bathroom completes the upper-level accommodation.

Mansefield also offers excellent storage throughout and benefits from underfloor heating in the kitchen and bathrooms, adding to the comfort and convenience of modern living.

Area Insights

Coldstream lies on the bank of the River Tweed and is a small town offering an array of amenities. The town offers a wonderful community spirit, and the local conveniences of Coldstream are on the doorstep. Coldstream offers some particularly beautiful walks along the banks of the River Tweed and within the grounds of the Hirsell Estate and surrounding countryside.

Coldstream is a picturesque town full of Scottish charm and character and is home to the Coldstream Guards, one of the oldest regiments in the British Army. Coldstream offers a range of amenities and local shops including a Co-op supermarket, a first-class butcher, medical centre, an excellent children's playpark and several take away restaurants. Coldstream offers local attractions such as the Coldstream Museum and their Civic week in August.

The historic market town of Kelso lies around 9 miles from Mansefield. Kelso houses a number of the major supermarket chains, excellent local shopping, several public houses and restaurants and a number of historical attractions such as Kelso Abbey and Floors Castle. Kelso also offers the world famous Kelso Races Course and leisure facilities which include a swimming pool, fitness centre and 2 fantastic golf courses, the championship course at the Schloss Hotel and Kelso Golf Club.

The countryside surrounding the house offers an excellent choice of attractions such as The Hirsell, Paxton House and numerous other historic houses, and the particularly beautiful coastline around St Abbs and Coldingham. The Northumberland National Park (Britain's biggest National Park) and the Cheviot Hills are only a 20 minute drive from Mansefield and the historic towns of Melrose and Jedburgh are also nearby.

Coldstream is a quiet and peaceful area but offers excellent links to Edinburgh, Newcastle and even London. The A697 provides easy commutable access to Scotland's capital city, Newcastle and Berwick upon Tweed which is only a 20 minute drive away. Berwick offers a mainline train station and a regular service up and down the country, with London being only a 3 ½ hour journey away.
