- Detached Former Vicarage
- 6 Double Bedrooms
- Plot Totalling Approx. 5.9 Acres
- Garaging & Outbuildings
- Considerable Potential
- Approaching 3,700 Sq.Ft.
- 4 Receptions
- Generous Gated Driveway
- Wealth Of Character & Features
- No Upward Chain

A rare opportunity to purchase an interesting detached period home, formerly the old vicarage, located in a semi rural location on the fringes of the well regarded village of Scarrington and occupying a substantial plot extending to approximately 5.9 acres including formal gardens and grass paddocks.

The property itself offers an excellent level of versatile accommodation spanning three floors, extending to approximately 3,700 sq.ft. and retaining much of its inherent character with high deep corniced ceilings, architraves and skirtings, sash windows and period style fireplaces. The main reception and bedrooms offer spacious accommodation expected in a house of its period.

The property offers up to 4 reception rooms as well as a dining kitchen, a well proportioned boot room, ground floor cloak room and cellars. There are 6 double bedrooms spread out over two floors with both a well proportioned main bathroom, ensuite facilities to the principle bedroom and separate WC.

The property offers considerable character with a great deal of potential, requiring a general programme of modernisation and refurbishment which allows a prospective purchaser to design it to their own tastes and requirements.

As well as the internal accommodation the property occupies a stunning plot with around 1.8 acres of formal gardens and a large sweeping driveway providing a considerable level of off road parking together with attached garaging and workshop space. To the rear there are attractive semi wooded formal gardens to the rear which encompass the unusual feature of a London underground locomotive which will be included in the sale (The train will NOT be removed and is the responsibility of any purchaser). As well as the formal gardens there are approximately 4 acres of grazing land lying adjacent to the main house with their own separate access off Hawksworth Road.

The property is offered to the market with no upward chain and provides a unique opportunity to purchase an interesting, very individual, period home within this highly regarded location.

EXTERIOR

The property occupies an impressive, established, plot which in total extends to approximately 5.9 acres and includes an initial formal garden surrounding the house which extends to approximately 1.8 acres. The property is accessed via an electric field gate onto a sweeping gravelled driveway which provides a considerable level of off road parking and, in turn, leads to the brick built garage. The front garden is bordered by a brick wall with an additional courtyard area to the side, the garden having well stocked borders with a range of trees and shrubs. The gardens at the rear are mainly laid to lawn having an initial paved terrace immediately to the rear of the house which leads out onto a central lawned area, again with established trees and shrubs, creating a semi wooded outdoor space with a great deal of privacy. Located within the garden is the unusual feature of a London underground train which will be included within the sale and is considered to be a fixture.

As well as the formal gardens the property also benefits from an adjacent level grass paddock to the north east which extends to approximately 2.7 acres and a smaller paddock to the south west side which extends to approximately 1.3 acres, enclosed in the main by established hedging and post and rail fencing with gated access off Hawksworth Road,
