SITUATION

The property is well positioned in the attractive Cornish village of Lanreath, offering peaceful rural living yet only 6 miles from the stunning stretch of South Cornish Coast including the ever-popular fishing villages of Looe and Polperro. To the north-east lies the historic market town of Liskeard, providing excellent access to the A38 and wider transport links. The village itself retains a strong sense of community, centred around the charming St Manarch's Church and local amenities include a community-run convenience store with Post Office, and an active village hall that hosts regular events, complete with a licensed bar and social club.

DESCRIPTION

A detached period property understood to have been originally built for the former school headmaster in 1911, constructed of local stone with a slate roof and partially slate hung walls. While the property would benefit from a programme of light refurbishment, it presents an exciting opportunity to enhance and personalise a home with undeniable charm and potential.

ACCOMMODATION

The property offers well proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors and having been extended previously to the rear, offers ample space separate to two spacious reception rooms. The entrance porch sits adjacent to the ground floor hall, with a store cupboard and stairs to the first floor. Exposed wooden beams in the sitting room and a feature stone fireplace housing a woodburning stove create a sense of warmth and comfort, whilst the beautiful slate floors throughout the dining room add to the charm of the property. The kitchen/breakfast room has a range of fitted wooden units with space for a table and chairs. There is a window to the rear overlooking the garden, a range of integrated appliances and an oil fired Rayburn. The kitchen is complete with a utility room with space and plumbing for various white goods, and under stair storage in the dining room.

The first floor presents three bedrooms in total, complete with a sizeable family bathroom with a freestanding bath and separate shower cubicle. There is a built in storage cupboard housing a hot water tank, with built in shelving.

OUTSIDE

The property is bordered at the front by a rendered wall, with a driveway for one vehicle along with a separate driveway to the side for further off road parking. There is an adjoining garage with electric roller door, there is power and light connected along with a side door to the garden. The garden at the rear is completely enclosed, with mature hedge boundaries offering peace and privacy. Steps from the rear of the property lead to the areas of garden mainly laid to lawn, well kept and with a variety of mature shrubs and trees that offer an abundance of colour throughout the seasons.

SERVICES

Mains electricity, water and drainage. Night storage heaters and oil fired Rayburn. Broadband availability: Ultrafast and Standard ADSL, Mobile signal: voice and data available (Ofcom). Please note the agents have not inspected or tested these services. The property is sold subject to all local authority charges.
