The Property

Situated along a quiet semi-rural lane, set off the centre of the popular village of Goonhavern, this attractive detached Cornish stone-fronted bungalow offers deceptively spacious and versatile accommodation, perfect for families, those working from home, or anyone seeking a little extra space both inside and out.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall with staircase rising to the first floor. Doors lead to two ground floor double bedrooms, a shower room, utility room, kitchen and a generous living room featuring a wood-burning stove and patio doors opening onto the garden.

The first floor provides two further double bedrooms, one of which benefits from an adjoining room measuring 10'4" x 8'11", offering excellent flexibility as a dressing room, study, nursery or children's playroom.

Outside, the property continues to impress with a large lawned garden accessed directly from the living room. Fully enclosed, it provides a safe and secure environment for children and pets, while also offering ample space for keen gardeners wanting to create a separate allotment area. An attached garage and driveway parking for three to four vehicles complete the package.

Enjoying a convenient position close to the centre of Goonhavern, whilst retaining a peaceful semi-rural feel, this is a home that offers both character and practicality in equal measure.

Goonhavern is a great location for anyone wishing to experience village life while living a short distance from the beach. The village itself offers a school, pub/restaurant, everyday shop with post office, a garden centre with an additional restaurant, and much more. For those wanting to walk, run, or cycle to the beach, there is a newly constructed cycle path that takes you directly into Perranporth. The A30 is also a short drive away, as are Newquay and Truro, making this the perfect location for anyone wanting easy access throughout the county.
