Coopers Mews

Watford

Set within a small, privately accessed historic residential complex moments from Parmiter's School, this beautifully renovated three-bedroom family home offers something increasingly rare: genuine seclusion without sacrificing convenience.

The accommodation has been fully renovated throughout and flows naturally over two floors - from a welcoming entrance hall into a spacious dual-aspect living room and generous kitchen/dining room, designed as much for relaxed family life as for entertaining. Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two excellent doubles, are served by a family bathroom and an en-suite shower room; both finished with anti-fog mirrors and Japanese-style toilets for a touch of luxury.

Outside, a private patio and two allocated parking spaces provide practical everyday ease. The development's centrepiece, however, is a beautifully manicured Victorian walled garden - an exclusive residents' amenity that feels entirely removed from the world beyond its walls. The expansive lawn is a natural playground for children, while the sheltered surroundings lend themselves equally to lazy summer afternoons, neighbourly gatherings, and family entertaining.

There is a genuine sense of community here. Children walk to Parmiter's School together, play freely in the enclosed garden into the long summer evenings, and neighbours actually know one another - a quality of life that is quietly extraordinary for a location so well connected to local shops, parks, and transport links.

Offered with a complete upper chain, allowing buyers to proceed with confidence and certainty.
