Property Description

This two bedroom lodge is situated in an idyllic and secluded location overlooking the River Dart. It is set along a private road on its own plot with a river walk which is for residents only.

Buckfastleigh is an ancient town set on the River Dart, at the edge of Dartmoor. The famous Buckfast Abbey is a few minutes walk from Dartbridge Manor. There are many beautiful walks along the River and other attractions nearby such as the Otter & Butterfly Sanctuary and the South Devon Steam & Miniature Railways.

The town centre is well catered for with a range of independent shops and cafes. There are several pubs in the vicinity, all in walking distance. The A38 is close by providing links to Exeter & Plymouth, whilst Totnes and Torbay are also very easily accessible.
