Tregarth Road
Bristol

Property Description

Set along a quiet, residential stretch of Tregarth Road, this three-bedroom terraced home offers a thoughtful balance of space, comfort and that unmistakable BS3 community feel. Built in the early 1980s and arranged across a generous footprint, the property sits within a small postcode cluster, giving the street a calmer, more intimate rhythm than many expect this close to Bedminster's energy.

Inside, the layout delivers three well-proportioned bedrooms, flexible living space and the kind of everyday practicality that suits growing families, first-time movers or anyone wanting a home that adapts to modern life. Natural light moves well through the property, while outside you'll find the rare advantage of off-street parking — a genuine asset in this part of South Bristol.

With North Street's independents, green spaces, weekend markets and Parson Street Station all within easy reach, this is a home rooted in its neighbourhood: friendly, walkable and unmistakably BS3.
