The Property

4 Old Drill Hall is a very well presented two bedroom terraced house. The property provides an entrance hall with a wide staircase leading to the first floor. The sitting room has a large window overlooking the front patio. To the rear is an attractive wall of reclaimed brick with oak and glass which separates this room and the kitchen. A deep understairs cupboard houses the electric central heating boiler and controls. The kitchen is fitted with a good range of cream wall and base cupboards with solid timber worktops. There is an integrated washing machine, ceramic hob and electric oven. Slate tiled flooring is fitted throughout the kitchen and the high part vaulted ceiling has two Velux windows fitted. Off the kitchen is a cloakroom with a W.C. hand basin and space for coats. On the first floor there is a spacious double bedroom with a built-in cupboard and a second bedroom can be found to the rear. The bathroom has fully tiled walls and floor with a bath, separate shower, W.C. and a hand basin. This property is suitable for buyers over 50 years old.

Outside

To the front of the house is an attractive paved terrace for sitting out which is surrounded by raised well planted flower beds contained by re-claimed railway sleepers. There is allocated parking for one vehicle to front of the property and a communal garden store and bin store.

Location

The property is situated in the town centre, just off the market square and accessed through a private road. Halesworth provides many independent shops, schools, public houses, restaurants, doctors and vets. It has a thriving centre of arts for the community called 'The Cut' which is used as a theatre, cinema, exhibitions and workshops. There is a train station with services to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich. The heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a 20 minutes drive away.
