Property Description

A detached family home of much charm and character, a former cottage and mill dating back to the 17th Century of traditional construction under a slated roof with later additions. The property could be converted into two separate dwellings (subject to necessary planning)

The property is situated in an attractive semi rural location with fabulous views over the surrounding area with a boundary to the River Ceidrych and open aspect to the rear over surrounding farmland.

The property benefits from oil central heating and retains many original features to include inglenook fireplace and bread ovens, beamed ceilings, quarry tiled floors, oak flooring and doors.

Situated in a convenient semi rural location on the outskirts of the village of Bethlehem with commanding views over the surrounding area. There are opportunities for walking, riding and cycling being located within the Brecon Beacons National Park and close to Garn Goch, an iron age stone built hill fort.

The property is approximately 5 miles from the market town of Llandeilo which offers a wide and varied range of amenities to include banks, shops, offices and schools. The M4 extension at Cross Hands is within easy commuting distance and gives easy access to Swansea, Llanelli and Cardiff. Llangadog village is approximately 3 miles away with its variety of shops, public houses, doctors surgery and junior school.

The area is a well known Tourist destination with Garn Goch in the distance with many popular attractions close at hand which include Dinefwr Castle, Carreg Cennen Castle, Dryslwyn Castle, Aberglasney Gardens and the Botanical Gardens of Wales all within a short drive.

The spacious accommodation comprises Hall, lounge, sitting room, study, kitchen/breakfast room, utility, cloakroom, first floor 4 bedrooms with ensuite bathroom and family bathroom, attic bedroom and shower room.
