VALE CLOSE WEYBRIDGE, KT13

ASKING PRICE: £865,000

This well-presented home is set within a quiet cul-de-sac in Oatlands Village, offering generous and flexible accommodation that works as a superb family home. The property has been well refurbished and maintained, with bright, neutral interiors, modern bathrooms and a practical layout that gives plenty of options for day-to-day living.

The ground floor includes a good-sized living room, separate dining space and a modern fitted kitchen with excellent storage, worktop space, roof light, and range-style cooker. There is direct access out to the rear garden, making the ground floor feel sociable and well connected, with the kitchen, dining and living areas all working naturally for family life. There are two more downstairs rooms that can be used as a further reception room and study. Upstairs, the property offers multiple well-proportioned bedrooms, including rooms with en-suite facilities, alongside a further modern bathroom/shower room. The layout could very comfortably be enjoyed as a sizeable family home, with scope for many uses.

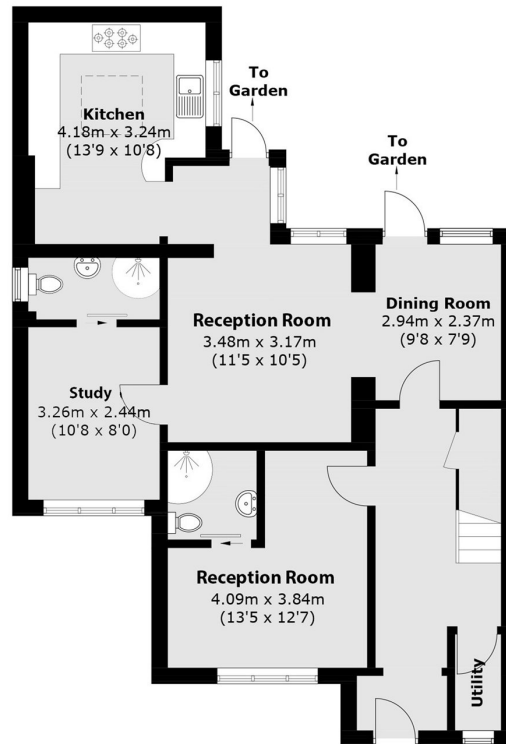

Outside, there is off-street parking to the front and a tiered rear garden with patio seating areas and a raised terrace, creating a private and usable outside space. The property's position in a quiet cul-de-sac adds to its appeal, while the Oatlands location provides excellent access to local shops, transport links, schools, business parks and the wider Weybridge area.
