The present owner has successfully remodelled this three bedroom, single-storey home to a high standard throughout. The remodelling was undertaken by a family run company of local builders, based in Sheringham who specialise in high end properties. A particular feature of the home is the open plan kitchen/dining room that has been created with the removal of an interior wall. The rest of the accommodation comprises:- a sitting room, modern bathroom and a utility room. The garden is designed with 'low maintenance' in mind, has a private feel with an area laid to lawn, a large paved seating area and offers access to the garage which has an additional room attached that lends itself to being used in many ways. It has central heating so would make a perfect home office/hobby room away from the main accommodation. The front of the home is paved and offers parking for multiple vehicles. The home commands an enviable position, within a semi-wooded and secluded setting, within the well-placed village of High Kelling, just 2 miles from Holt and good proximity to the North Norfolk coastline.

Location

High Kelling is a small, part wooded village. Amenities include a medical practice, a village shop and Post Office. Approximately two miles away is the Georgian market town of Holt. The centre of the town comprises mainly individual shops and businesses where a friendly and personal service remains. The town is also home to Gresham's School. The North Norfolk coastline is within easy reach for destinations as Salthouse, Cley, Blakeney and Morston.

A popular local attraction is the 'North Norfolk Railway'. The 'Poppy Line' as it is affectionately known, runs from the smart Victorian seaside resort of Sheringham to the Georgian town of Holt. The North Norfolk Railway runs through the county's most stunning coastal scenery.

Operated almost entirely by Volunteers from all walks of life, the line is East Anglia's premier heritage railway.
