welcome to

Graham Avenue, Brighton

In the heart of sought-after Patcham, this beautifully presented 1930s semi blends period charm with modern living. Extended open-plan kitchen/diner, three generous bedrooms, driveway, garage and a superb rear garden with summer house—ideal for family life and entertaining.

Nestled in the heart of sought-after Patcham, this exceptional 1930s semi-detached house effortlessly blends traditional character with contemporary comfort. Beautifully maintained in excellent condition, the property greets visitors with inviting kerb appeal and the practical convenience of both a driveway and garage.

Inside, a thoughtfully extended open-plan kitchen and dining area provides a space perfect for bustling family life or relaxed entertaining. Here, natural light floods in, giving a warm and bright ambience, while charming period features offer an unmistakable sense of character. The generous proportions continue with three expansive bedrooms, offering ample room for the entire household, as well as a well-fitted modern bathroom.

Step outside to a substantial lawned rear garden, ideal for summer barbecues or children's play. In addition, a timber-framed summer house delivers even further versatility—perfect as a home office, hobbies retreat, or simply a tranquil space to unwind.
