ABOUT THE HOME

A stunning family home, fully renovated with a soulful and homely design. The property has 4 bedrooms, the principle bedroom located in a large attic conversion, has access to an en suit bathroom, multiple wardrobes, a home desk set up and skylights. The other bedrooms are located on the first floor, 2 of which are double bedrooms with all of them in close proximity to a bathroom. The ground floor is fully extended and provides a beautiful open design kitchen / dining area that spans the length of the home. This area shifts seamlessly in to the large green and decked garden which is spacious enough to host a table and chairs. Returning back inside, a ground floor WC is ideally placed, much like the front porch which is greeted with views of the homely front garden.

The family home is located on Links Road, a well connected and sort after area in Tooting. The location offers multiple schools with easy access and additionally has great transport links due to Tooting station being near by. Additionally Figge's Marsh is a great local green space in close proximity to the house.
