Bacton

Bacton is a quaint village in Suffolk, England, steeped in history and charm, offering a picturesque glimpse into traditional English village life. The village is characterised by its lush, rolling landscapes dotted with charming cottages and expansive fields, providing a tranquil retreat from bustling cities.

Bacton boasts a rich historical tapestry, with its name believed to derive from the Old English "Bacca's town." The village's historical centerpiece is St. Mary's Church, an architectural gem with parts dating back to the 14th century. This church not only serves as a place of worship but also as a community hub, hosting various local events and gatherings.

The village exudes a warm sense of community, with friendly locals who take pride in their vibrant village life. Bacton offers a range of amenities including a local primary school, a village hall, and a cosy pub, which acts as a social focal point for residents. The village often hosts community events, fostering a close-knit atmosphere among its inhabitants.

Surrounded by stunning countryside, Bacton is an ideal spot for nature enthusiasts and walkers. The area is crisscrossed with scenic footpaths and trails, offering panoramic views of Suffolk's idyllic landscapes. Whether it's exploring the nearby woodlands or enjoying a leisurely stroll along the country lanes, Bacton provides ample opportunities for outdoor recreation.

Earlsbrook

Situated in the highly desirable village of Bacton, this detached bungalow features four spacious bedrooms, with three offering ample storage spaces. The master suite is complemented by an ensuite bathroom, complete with a three-piece suite.

Upon entering, the entrance hall offers loft access and a built-in cupboard. The spacious living room features patio doors that open to the garden, alongside a cosy fireplace and surround. Ideal for entertaining, the property includes a separate dining room and a convenient cloakroom.

The well-appointed kitchen is equipped with a range of wall and base units, a double electric oven with a hob and cooker hood, and space for a fridge freezer, as well as an integrated dishwasher. Finally, the family bathroom boasts a four-piece suite.

Externally, the property is enclosed with hedges and fencing, offering privacy and tranquillity. The garden features a delightful mix of patio and lawn areas, mature trees, and a timber shed. A rear access gate further enhances the garden's appeal.

The property includes a garage room with additional wall and base units and space for appliances, while the garage itself is fitted with an electric roller door and is home to the water softener. The expansive gravel driveway provides ample parking space, including accommodation for a large vehicle.

Notably, the property was underpinned around 1998 following subsidence issues in 1980, ensuring stability and peace of mind for future homeowners. This detached bungalow is a rare find in the sought-after village of Bacton, offering a perfect balance of style, comfort, and practicality.
