DESCRIPTION

Ivy Cottage is a stunning detached Grade II listed thatched cottage brimming with character consisting of three double bedrooms, served by both a family bathroom and additional shower room. Downstairs is a superb entrance hall with w/c leading into a large sitting room with a stunning fireplace, housing a log burner with an opening through to the spacious kitchen/dining room. Adjoining this is a useful utility area and additional large storage space.

Outside, the property sits in a generous plot with off street parking for several vehicles, along with a detached timber garage giving useful storage or space for a workshop. The garden is separated into sections giving an area of lawn, mature plants and shrubbery for the more green fingered.

Just 3.5 miles from Tiverton, the popular village of Bickleigh is nestled within the scenic Exe Valley and provides a range of amenities including a primary school, church and the Fishermans Cot pub.

Equidistant, Exeter lies to the south by just 10 miles, whilst to the north lies the M5 (Junction 27) alongside which sits Tiverton parkway train station, giving excellent access to wider road and rail networks.
