

Shadwells Road,Lancing BN15 9EW

welcome to
Shadwells Road, Lancing

This fantastic two bedroom home is chain free and would make an excellent first time buy or investment. The property is in a popular area of Lancing, has lots of natural light and is well presented throughout. To the front of the property there is off road parking with dropped kerb access and a lawned garden. Inside the property, from the hallway you will find a bright lounge with attractive fireplace and built in storage, leading through to the generous kitchen with plenty of worktop and storage space and door to the private rear garden with patio, lawn and shed. Upstairs there are two well proportioned bedrooms with storage, storage on the landing and a family bathroom. The property is within easy walking distance of the village centre with many shops and amenities, including Lancing train station with frequent direct trains to Brighton and London Victoria, plus excellent local travel links to Brighton and Worthing. We recommend an early viewing to take advantage of this excellent opportunity.
