ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over three storeys and offers a well-balanced combination of reception and bedroom space.

The property is entered via an entrance porch, which provides access to a cloakroom with WC. The principal reception space is the sitting room, enjoying a pleasant outlook across the formal front garden. A substantial inglenook fireplace with stone hearth and wood burning stove forms an attractive focal point, while traditional built-in storage further enhances the character of the room. From here, access is provided to the rear courtyard garden via a boot room.

The kitchen is fitted with a bespoke range of wooden wall and base units complemented by solid stone worktops and a Butler sink. There is space for a range-style cooker, whilst engineered oak flooring continues throughout the room. The kitchen leads into the dining room, situated within the single-storey wing to the north-east of the dwelling. This delightful space features a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and enjoys direct access to both the courtyard garden and the lane to the side of the property.

Beyond the dining room is a utility room providing further storage and space for white goods. A door then leads through to a home office which offers flexibility for a variety of uses and could readily serve as a ground floor bedroom if required. Adjoining this room is a shower room comprising a walk-in shower, wash basin and WC.
