Introducing...

17 Swan Hill, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, SY1 1NL

Occupying a prestigious position on the highly regarded Swan Hill, within the historic loop of the River Severn, this exceptional Grade II Listed Georgian residence offers an outstanding combination of elegant period architecture, privacy and one of the finest town centre settings in Shrewsbury. Hidden behind secure gates, the property enjoys beautifully landscaped walled gardens, extensive private parking and delightful views towards St Chad's Church – a remarkably rare combination within the heart of this historic town. Ideally positioned just a short stroll from independent shops, cafes, restaurants, Theatre Severn and the picturesque riverside walks of The Quarry, while also being moments from the town's highly regarded independent schools, 17 Swan Hill offers an enviable lifestyle that seamlessly combines tranquility with everyday convenience. Adding further appeal, there is the opportunity, by separate negotiation, to acquire a detached office building with planning consent for residential conversion (17a), a self-contained one bedroom apartment (17c) and a neighbouring four bedroom cottage (17b). Together, these present exceptional possibilities for multi-generational living, guest accommodation, home working or investment, making this a truly unique opportunity.

A welcoming entrance hall showcases the property's elegant Georgian proportions, with high ceilings and original period features setting the tone throughout. The formal sitting room provides a superb space for entertaining, complemented by a cosy snug with feature fireplace. To the rear, the impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and family room has been beautifully designed with bespoke cabinetry, a central island, premium integrated appliances and a striking roof lantern flooding the space with natural light. Full-width bi-fold doors open directly onto the gardens, creating a seamless connection between inside and out. A versatile basement offers excellent additional space, ideal as a studio, gym, hobby room or storage.

The upper floors provide five generously proportioned bedrooms, including an impressive principal bedroom with attractive outlooks. The remaining bedrooms offer flexibility for family living, guests or home working, all served by two well-appointed bathrooms that combine contemporary styling with the property's timeless character.

Approached through secure gates, the property enjoys extensive private parking, a particularly rare feature for such a central location. The beautifully enclosed walled gardens provide a peaceful and private retreat with mature planting, lawns, established borders and climbing wisteria, creating an idyllic setting for outdoor entertaining and family enjoyment. From the gardens, delightful views towards the iconic St Chad's Church further enhance the property's unique appeal.
