DESCRIPTION

Set within approximately 4.4 acres of beautifully mature and utterly private grounds, this exceptional 10 bedroom former hotel presents a rare opportunity to create a truly luxurious residence or an exclusive leisure-led development in one of North Devon's most desirable settings. Elevated and completely secluded, the property enjoys sweeping views across its landscaped South-facing gardens, arranged over a series of elegant terraces with established planting, majestic trees, a natural pond and a stream forming a serene backdrop. The accommodation extending to around 8580 sq ft offers remarkable versatility, with the extensive grounds incorporating a tennis court, swimming pool, function room and a workers' bungalow, all lending themselves naturally to redevelopment potential, subject to consents. The East Wing of the property provides generous private owners' accommodation, including a kitchen, two lounges and two bedrooms, with both independent external access and internal connection to the main residence, ideal for multi generational living, a private suite, or integration into a wider luxury redesign. With recently granted full residential status by North Devon Council (Change of use from hotel (C1) to residential dwellinghouse (C3)), the estate offers outstanding scope: from crafting an exceptional single family home to delivering a collection of high end residences through conversion of the hotel or existing buildings, all within a setting defined by tranquility, space and natural beauty.

The site has access into adjoining ancient woodland of approximately 75 acres which is in separate ownership but can be enjoyed by the owners and guests at the property.
