SITUATION

The property is situated off Station Road in the town of St Columb Major near Newquay in Cornwall. St Columb has a population of approximately 4,000 and is well located on the A39 approximately 6 miles east of Newquay and 2 miles from the A30. There is a mainline railway station approximately 2 miles to the south of St Columb Road and Newquay Airport is 3 miles to the north west. St Columb Major has a range of local services including a doctors, vet, primary school and local shops.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a level area of greenfield land with access directly off the public highway. The land is currently utilised for agricultural purposes and is bordered by residential development to the north and west and commercial/residential development to the south. The total site area is 0.72 Hectares (1.77 Acres).

ACCESS AND SERVICES

Vehicular and pedestrian access from Station Road, St Columb Major. There are currently no services connected to the Property but it is anticipated that connections to mains water and electricity are available nearby. Interested parties must rely upon their own investigation and enquiries with the highways authority and relevant utilities providers.

PLANNING HISTORY

An outline planning application (Ref: PA21/04106) was submitted in 2021 for the erection of up to nine dwellings, with all matters reserved except access. That application was subsequently withdrawn. Access to copies of the submitted planning documents is available to prospective purchasers on request for information only. The land offers strategic potential, and interested parties are encouraged to contact Stags to discuss the planning history and potential for development.
