Situated in a tucked away position within this peaceful Rutland village Figtree Farmhouse is a quintessential Grade II Listed former Farmhouse which has undergone recent modernisation and clever extension into some of the former farm buildings to blend the original charm and character of open beams, fireplaces and flooring with modern day living including refitted kitchen breakfast room, refitted bathrooms/ensuites and underfloor heating to the extension area. Rethatched in 2024 and sitting in a plot of approximately 0.65 acre in all the accommodation is spacious with surprising high ceilings to the rooms. A lovely solid oak door opens to the dining room with a quarry tiled floor and feature recessed fireplace. The sitting room is another sizeable reception room with flagstone/oak flooring, inglenook fireplace and trap door to cellar, a study to the rear of the property gives that extra flexibility. The kitchen breakfast has been refitted with modern grey fronted units and granite work surface with built in appliances and island. The rear hall has a door to the outside, cloakroom and utility room. The extension into part of the former outbuildings gives a master bedroom space with a wet room ensuite - it could also be used as additional living space having French doors to the outside. To the first floor a spacious landing area/small study area gives access to the refitted 4 piece bathroom and 2 double bedrooms. Approached by a driveway passing through a 5 bar gate to gravel hardstanding for several vehicles with useful outbuildings currently used as storage & workshop. The gardens are to the front, side and rear of the property laid principally to lawn with patio areas and a high degree of privacy. In addition there are two traditional barns in the former farmyard with full planning permission to convert into two 3 bedroom dwellings.
