ABOUT THE HOME

A beautifully presented two double bedroom, ground floor Victorian conversion flat featuring a private rear garden and extended open-plan living space.

Finished to a modern standard throughout, accommodation comprises; a characterful front reception room with high ceilings, shutters, alcove storage, and a period fireplace. The central hallway leads to a spacious principal double bedroom with custom fitted wardrobes, a second versatile double bedroom, and a modern family bathroom. To the rear, an impressive extended kitchen and dining room with herringbone flooring and integrated appliances opens via French doors onto a lovely rear garden. Share of freehold property.

Situated on Quinton Street, a desirable residential road in the heart of Earlsfield. Earlsfield Mainline Station is moments away for direct access to Waterloo, alongside Garratt Lane's vibrant array of independent cafes, restaurants, and local amenities, with Wandsworth Common nearby.

Total area (approx.): 74.6 sq. m (802.9 sq. ft)
