An attractive and deceptively spacious four bedroom character home situated on Herbert Street in the heart of Hemel Hempstead's historic Old Town offered for sale with a complete onward chain. The property offers versatile accommodation arranged over four levels and spans approximately 1,468 sq ft including the basement.

The ground floor comprises a bay fronted living room, separate dining room, an impressive 18ft kitchen and a useful utility room with adjoining WC. The basement provides approximately 202 sq ft of additional space and is currently utilised as a home office.

The first floor features three bedrooms and a generously sized family bathroom complete with both a bath and separate shower. The second floor provides a particularly spacious principal bedroom with useful eaves storage.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed front garden and a private rear garden with lawn, established planting and a raised decked seating area.

Herbert Street is conveniently positioned for the shops, restaurants and amenities of Hemel Hempstead Old Town, whilst also providing access to nearby parks, schools and transport links.
