Prominently situated in this popular riverside village, this established semi detached home occupies a substantial garden plot. Set back from the road with off road parking to the front, the property features three bedrooms, separate sitting and dining rooms and an extended kitchen. There is an attached carport, an extended garage and a particularly long rear garden which extends to approximately ft in depth. The property now requires updating but offers significant potential for development. Conveniently located for Clapham's range of amenities, there is a parade of shops close by, a sports field and a selection of pubs and restaurants within easy walking distance. Council Tax Band: C EPC Rating: D Available with no onward chain this semi detached home represents an ideal opportunity on which the new owner can put their own stamp. The loft is floored and has Velux windows to both the front and rear elevations. There is gas radiator heating fired by a recently installed Valiant combi boiler. The garage is enlarged which provides ideal workshop potential and there is a timber summerhouse and a garden building with power and light to the rear of the plot. For the commuter, Bedford's town centre and rail station are within 3 miles whilst the A6 and southern bypass road routes are close at hand.
