Set in the desirable Roundhill area of Brighton, this charming first-floor flat on D'Aubigny Road offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Spanning an efficient 258 square feet, this one-bedroom flat is ideal for individuals or couples seeking a cosy retreat in a vibrant city.

Upon entering, you will find a well-proportioned reception room that serves as a welcoming space for relaxation or entertaining guests. The flat is in good condition, ensuring that you can move in with ease and enjoy your new home from day one. The bedroom is thoughtfully designed to provide a peaceful sanctuary, while the bathroom is functional and well-maintained.

One of the standout features of this property is the new lease that will be granted upon completion, providing you with peace of mind and security for years to come. Additionally, the absence of an onward chain simplifies the buying process, making it an attractive option for those looking to settle in quickly.

The Roundhill location is highly sought after, known for its friendly community and proximity to local amenities, parks, and transport links. This flat presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers or investors looking to capitalise on the vibrant Brighton property market.

In summary, this one-bedroom first-floor flat on D'Aubigny Road is a delightful find, offering a comfortable living space in a prime location, with the added benefits of a new lease and no onward chain. Do not miss the chance to make this lovely flat your new home.

The Roundhill area has many benefits being within walking distance of the city centre and all its amenities. All travel networks are also within easy reach. In years gone by in place of Roundhill was Tower Mill, otherwise known as Round Hill Mill or Cuttress's Mill. This was one of the largest windmills in the country and was dismantled in 1913 with 50,000 of its bricks used in the construction of the first houses built in the Roundhill area.
