

4 Kingsmead Drive, Branton

Offers In Region Of £250,000

Occupying a prime position within an attractive and highly regarded setting, this well-presented and generously proportioned two-bedroom detached bungalow presents a rare opportunity for discerning buyers seeking both immediate comfort and future potential.

The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation, thoughtfully arranged across a single level, with an abundance of natural light enhancing the welcoming interior. While already comfortable and well maintained, the home provides significant scope for further enhancement, including the potential to extend or create additional living space via a loft conversion (subject to the necessary planning consents), making it an ideal long-term investment.

Externally, the bungalow is complemented by attractive, well-kept gardens, providing a peaceful outdoor retreat with ample space for relaxation or entertaining. A garage and generous off-road parking further enhance the practicality of this appealing home.

Perfectly positioned for convenience without compromising on tranquility, this home is ideally suited to a wide range of buyers. Whether downsizing, investing, or looking to create a bespoke forever home, the property offers a superb balance of immediate comfort and exciting future possibilities. Situated within a highly regarded and sought-after location, the property enjoys the perfect balance of peaceful residential living and everyday convenience. The surrounding area is well known for its attractive setting, community feel, and accessibility.

A wide range of local amenities are within easy reach, including shops, cafés, and essential services, while reputable schools nearby make the area particularly appealing to families. For commuters, excellent transport links provide straightforward access to surrounding towns and cities, with nearby motorway networks ensuring ease of travel further afield.

The location also benefits from nearby green spaces and countryside walks, ideal for those who enjoy outdoor living, while still remaining conveniently positioned for modern lifestyles.
