what the owners will miss

This house has been our beloved first family home. It's where we brought our children home for the very first time and it holds so many special memories for us. We have absolutely loved living here, particularly spending time in our quiet, sun-drenched south-facing garden which acts as a real sun trap throughout the day. Combined with brilliant, friendly neighbours and a genuinely welcoming community, it's been a truly wonderful place to live, and we hope the next owners will be just as happy here as we have been.

just a thought...

If you are looking for a solid house, presented well and giving you close access to everything Hanham has to offer then look no further than this superb listing!
