Set within a small, private cul-de-sac in a central Nailsea location, this individual detached bungalow offers an appealing opportunity for those looking to downsize while retaining a comfortable home, private garden and convenient access to everyday amenities. Set back from the road, the property combines single-storey living with scope to adapt the accommodation to suit individual needs.

A welcoming entrance hall connects the principal rooms, with a fitted kitchen positioned to the front of the property. The generous living/dining room is a particular feature, enjoying plenty of natural light through large windows and doors which open onto and overlook the rear garden, creating a pleasant connection between inside and out. There are two well-proportioned double bedrooms and a shower room, completing the existing accommodation. The integral garage, adjoining the kitchen, offers useful storage and exciting potential to explore conversion into additional living space or a larger kitchen/dining room, subject to the necessary consents.

Outside, a driveway provides convenient off-road parking to the front. The established, west-facing rear garden offers a private setting in which to relax and enjoy the afternoon and evening sunshine. A patio provides space for outdoor seating, while the lawn and mature planting create an attractive green backdrop. A lower section, accessed via a ramp, offers further versatility and would make an ideal vegetable garden or growing area for those with green fingers.

The location is a real advantage, with Nailsea's Crown Glass shopping area and High Street within easy reach, offering a range of shops, cafés and everyday services. Local transport links also provide connections further afield, making this a practical choice for those seeking a manageable home without sacrificing convenience.

“An ideal home for downsizing, with a private west-facing garden and exciting scope to make it your own.”
